TALK ON :
'GOAL SETTING AND EXECUTION'

By: Er. Nidhi Prakash,
co-founder of 'Greenhouse cafe Lucknow'

About Er Nidhi Prakash: After working for a decade in Multinationals (Doka, Lafarge Holcim group) and Indian MNCs (Aditya Birla Group) in the construction industry, Nidhi hit upon an insight that while the industry had a lot of talented people, quite an effort still needs to go into working with them when it comes to life transformation and coaching. Since early this year she has been doing a series of short transformation videos which focus on practical aspects of managing life. Be it comes to goal planning and achievement, handling crunch situations. The viral success of these videos and the fact that she herself, being an engineer and MBA from reputed institutes, had to immerse herself into these concepts made her sure that degrees don't make up for a life coach. Like our health coach helps us take decisions towards our health, and luckily our life coach doesn't need to be anyone else but our better selves. So join me for a session on doing things better.
